INDEX FOR VOLUME 12-1981

Journal Of Applied Rehabilitation Counseling

Subject Index

Assessment and Evaluation

An Alternative Evaluation Tool for the Measurement of Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor Performance 27-31
August R. Schenzinger

Psychosocial Assessment in Rehabilitation 36-39
Robert L. Akridge

Evaluation of Independent Living Programs 200-204
Richard T. Rossler

Attitudes Towards Disabilities

Rehabilitation Practitioner Attitudes Toward Psychiatric Vocational Rehabilitation 45-49
Rocco Cottone & Anita Sklava-Lancaster

The Effects of Past Psychiatric Disability on Employer Evaluation of a Job Applicant 50-55
Norman Bervin & John H. Driscoll

Methods for Promoting Attitude Change Toward and Among Physically Disabled Persons 220-225
Marvin J. Westwood, James W. Vargo, & Frances Vargo

Consolidation of Professional Associations

The Consolidation of the Rehabilitation Professional Associations: Pros and Cons 65-68
Timothy F. Field

Pros and Cons of Rehabilitation Professional Association Consolidation Considerations of VEWAA 69-71
Julian M. Nadolsky

Professional Associations: A View From the Private Sector 72-74
Bill Roberts

Perspectives on the Proposed Merger of Rehabilitation Organizations 75-79
Kenneth W. Reagles

Professional Associations: An NRCA Perspective 80-81
David Brubaker

Will Consolidation Alone Yield A Profession? 82-84
Ralph Matkin

Consolidation of Professional Associations in the Field of Rehabilitation: An Invited Reaction 87-90

Reaction to "The Consolidation of the Rehabilitation Professional Associations" 91-92
Richard J. Baker

A Consolidation of Professional Rehabilitation Counseling Associations: Reality, Reluctance, and (Re-)Action 93-94
William G. Emener

Reactions to 1981 NCRE Region IV Mid-Winter Conference Working Papers Concerning the Consolidation of the Rehabilitation Professional Associations 95-97
Joe S. Dusenbury

The Case for an Independent Association of Rehabilitation Counselors: Revisited 98-100
John D. Rasch

Economic Impact

Rehabilitation's Unheralded Partner: Economics 208-211
Warren R. Rule & Keith C. Wright

Education and Training

University-Agency Contracts: A Reality in Rehabilitation 19-22
Bobbie Atkins

Successful Rehabilitation as Viewed by Field Professionals 195-199
Victor Florian

An Integrative Model for Rehabilitative Training and Practice 191-194
Ralph M. Crystal

Professional Issues

Accountability: The Case Review Process in Rehabilitation 4-8
Lana C. Brenes & Fred R. McFarlane

A Certification Dilemma: Private Rehabilitation Considerations 9-14
Ralph Matkin

Rehabilitation At the Crossroads: Is Professional Rehabilitation Experiencing Growth Pains or Death Throes? 85-86
Randall M. Parker & Kenneth R. Thomas

The Professional Status of Rehabilitation Counseling in State/Federal Vocational Rehabilitation Agencies 186-190
Ross K. Lynch & Kathleen McSweeney

Rehabilitation Client

Changes in Self Concept Following a Spinal Cord Injury 135-137
Thomas Mayer & H.B. Andrews

Expressed Versus Tested Vocational Interests of Incarcerated and Non-Incarcerated Adolescents 126-129
William W. Stewart, Paul D. Davis, Russell C. Wilson, & Thomas L. Porter

Rehabilitation Counseling

Potential Conflicts of Interests in Private Rehabilitation: Identification and Resolution 15-18
Ralph Matkin & V. Robert May

Toward a Theory of Rehabilitation Counseling 23-26
David Hershenson, Lynn A. Carter, Barbara D. Enoch, Allen W. Gaskell, William J. Huston, Jr., Jewel M. Kuljian, June MacKenzie, Arthur S. Spangler, & Beatrice Tabb

Promoting Counseling in Rehabilitation Settings 101-103
Kenneth R. Thomas & Randall M. Parker

Rehabilitation Counseling in the 1980's: A Discussion With Daniel Sinick 179-185
David Brubaker

Career Counseling with the Retarded 123-125
Andrew A. Cox

An Idea-Generating Paradigm and Resources for the Practitioner/Researcher 107-112
William Crimando

Vocational Guidance and Counseling: The Core of the Rehabilitation Process 205-207
Richard E. Garvin

Rehabilitation Counselor

Expectancy Theory As an Approach to the Motivation of Rehabilitation Counselors 138-142
Elmora R. Alexandra & Ronnie Wilkins

Vocational Rehabilitation

Creativity and Innovation in Vocational Rehabilitation Counseling 32-35
Seymour J. Mund

Assessing Employability of Handicapped Persons: The Vocational Rehabilitation Perspective 40-44
Brian Bolton

Services to Family Members by Vocatonal Rehabilitation Agencies 130-134
Florence Bender & Sally Kneipp

Functional Factors Related to Vocational Rehabilitation Outcome: Implications for Service Providers and Research 186-190
Ross K. Lynch

Job Forecasting in Vocational Rehabilitation 212-219
Roger H. Livingston & Terry C. Wilson

EDITORIALS

Emener, W.G. and Field, T.F.
Selected critical issues in rehabilitation counseling 3

Field, F.T. and Emener, W.G.
The process 59

Rubin, S.E.
The content: Should the rehabilitation professional associations consolidate? 61

Emener, W.G. and Field, T.F.
Questions...Questions...Questions... 105

Hasbrook, R.F.
If you have it — flaunt it.... 230

Emener, W.G. and Field, T.F.
Our past and present: Channel markers for our future 177

AUTHOR INDEX

Akridge, 36
Alexandra, 138
Atkins, 19
Baker, 91
Bender, 130
Bervin, 50
Bolton, 40
Brenes, 4
Brubaker, 80
Cottone, 45
Cox, 123
Crimando, 107
Crystal, 191
Dusenbury, 95
Emener, 3, 59,93, 105, 177
Field, 3, 59, 65, 105, 177
Florian, 195
Garvin, 205
Hershenson, 23
Lynch, 186
Matkin, 9, 15, 82
Mayer, 135
Mund, 32
Nadolsky, 69
Parker, 85
Pawlak, 87
Rasch, 98
Reagles, 75
Roberts, 72
Rossler, 200
Schenziner, 27
Stewart, 126
Thomas, 101
Westwood, 220
Wilson, 126, 212
Wright, 208